

Journal of Inspiration Economy

Call for Papers

Deadline: 30May 2014

The Journal of Inspiration Economy (JIE) Overview

The Journal of Inspiration Economy (JIE) aims to publish peer reviewed and high quality original research articles that describe latest research and developments in areas focusing on the inspiration principles and management in the world. Inspiration Economy is a research field which encapsulates varied academic fields(including but not restricted to: economics, management, sociology, psychology, etc) looking at various issues related to: innovation, creativity, knowledge, services, leadership, sustainable development, etc. JIE is a peer-reviewed journal and published twice a year.

The editorial board wishes to solicit manuscripts in all areas of all applied and researched work relevant to inspiration that leads countries, communities and government towards more stable and sustainable economic practices. Submitted manuscripts papers must show evidences of significant and original contributions to the above. Papers clearly with high applied potentials would be of particular importance.

Submitted papers should not have been previously published nor currently under consideration for publication elsewhere (N.B. Conference papers may only be submitted if the paper was not originally copyrighted). All papers are refereed through a double blind review process.

Authors are required to submit their papers in the MS Word format (see the attached instructions to authors) to jieeditors@gmail.com
